SUMMER SAILS:

We have completed our regular school sails and the Gleaming Ocean sails and those will begin again next September...BUT we have summer sails for various community groups and we need volunteers for those:

1. 7/16/09 and 7/23/09: YEAH (homeless kids in East Bay) will sail late afternoon on Benjamin, leaving Berkeley Dock O at 4 PM, returning at 800 for sunset sails. Ben, Ken and Lee likely captains,
2. 7/11 or 18th/09 St Francis sails for Society for Prevention of Child Abuse, on Bear, Les and Adam captains, noon.
3. CIVIC CENTER TRAINING: this high school program is training the same group of kids to become both crew on our regular sails and a Gleaming Ocean class. Dave Paytner, their teacher, will be part of the class and these sails will be on seven Tuesdays, meeting at noon on Bear. Same crew set up to be mentors for the students.

Our first MOB went great with eight practices of pickup, almost all within five minutes...and now...

RETREAT: With our second class ending, we are setting up a retreat all day on AUGUST 16 to discuss lessons learned and plans for next year. Next year we will have both Light House and Civic Center and perhaps one other school as our classes...IF YOU ARE INTERESTED, PLEASE PLAN ON SHOWING UP ON AUGUST 16...LOCATION TO BE ANNOUNCED

ALAN IS NOW A SECOND CAPTAIN, VOTED IN UNANIMOUSLY BY THE BOARD.

Boat Condition:

Erich of the coast Guard has a gap between assignments and will be doing various work on BEAR while Jim R is working to fix the ding and on the main winch.

Benjamin has its repaired jib in place.

FIRST AID/ CPR:

Our course for those who are in "review status" e.g. they have taken one or the other course in the last year, is JUNE 18. On August 13 we will have the full course in both First Aid and CPR for those needing full certification. 1515 QUINTARA AT 900.

Money? YES, MARTY REPORTS 52,801.78 ON HAND...BUT WE HAD BETTER PREPARE FOR LEAN TIMES AS THE STATE CUTS BACK ON SUPPORT.

Bay View Boat Club is providing volunteers and we are thinking of a Party at their location on either October 17 or October 24...Not to raise money but just to have fun. Stay tuned.
